

As part of the Centennial, D'Youville is hosting a speakers series, highlighting the college through personal recollections. The second Fireside Chat of series one brings the college community together as faculty members from nursing and integrative holistic health departments reminisce and reflect through the years while also exploring new ideas for D'Youville's future. This is an opportunity for you to gather with friends, classmates and colleagues in an informal setting as the D'Youville College community comes together to share with you their memories and experiences.

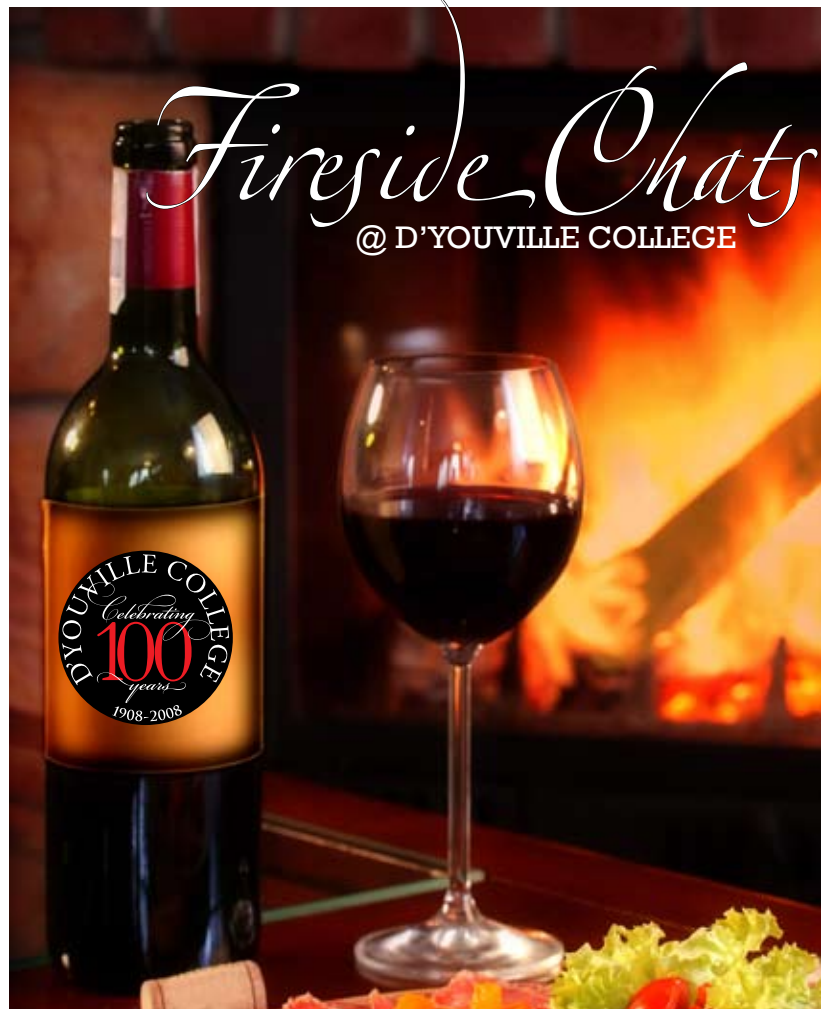

Nursing & Integrative Holistic Health Faculty Fireside Chat

February 21, 2008 at 4 p.m.

D'Youville College Center,
Blue Lounge

Light Refreshments
Wine and Cheese

rsvp by Feb. 14 to 716.829.7670
or milazzoc@dyc.edu

Verna Kieffer, RN, DNS, Chair, department of nursing. Dr. Kieffer received her B.S., M.S., and DNS from the SUNY at Buffalo. She was appointed chair of the department of nursing in July 2001. Her interests include community wellness, adult health, gerontology, quality of life and quality of care issues. Her doctoral research was an exploration of the professional nurse's ability to advocate for patients in the hospital environment. Dr. Kieffer has been a full-time DYC faculty member since fall 1992.

Carole Gutt, RN, Ed.D. Dr. Gutt has been a full-time D'Youville faculty member since fall 1985. Dr. Gutt was the chair of the nursing department from 1997- 2001 and the director of graduate nursing programs from 1989-1997. Dr. Gutt's areas of expertise include child health, curriculum development, and wellness.

Patricia Bahn, RN, MS. Mrs. Bahn has been a registered nurse for almost one-half of a century. For much of that time she has taught nursing students at D'Youville College. Her area of expertise is in medical and surgical nursing.

Paul T. Hageman, Ph.D., R.N., FAAIM, is an associate professor and chair of the department of integrative holistic health studies at D'Youville College. He earned his Ph.D. in nursing science theory and research development at New York University. Dr. Hageman is a fellow of the American Association of Integrative Medicine, maintains a private practice, and has authored various professional papers and publications.

Mark your calendar and please join us for this opportunity to reminisce about the past, share our thoughts on the present, and collectively prepare a vision for the future as we embark on an exciting new century of educating for life.