ANNE LUM DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

The Anne Lum Distinguished Alumni Award is named for the late Anne Ryan Lum, '24, whose volunteer service resulted in the establishment of the Loyalty Fund.

CRITERIA

A nominee must be a graduate of D'Youville College who has distinguished herself/himself through professional achievement, which has been demonstrated by prior recognition within their field, professional growth, involvement in community service, service to D'Youville College or any combination of these criteria.

NOMINATION PROCESS

Nominations may be submitted by members of the alumni community, or individuals who have close ties to the college (i.e. employees, members of the board of trustees, friends of the college). All nominations must include an essay describing the qualities of the nominee and how that person meets the criteria set forth above. The essay should be approximately 200-300 words in length (preferably typed).

SELECTION and PRESENTATION

Members of the Awards Committee from the Alumni Association Board of Directors will review the nominations, along with any other supporting documentation and select a final candidate for approval by the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

The presentation of the award shall take place at the annual Alumni Awards Dinner.

NOMINATIONS ARE DUE: MARCH 1

Nominations should be mailed to:
